

HUGS AND HEARTS WINE AND CHEESE

Margot L. Denomme's new children's book, 'Mommy, Am I Pretty?' was introduced to young readers on Sunday, November 24th at the Balmy Beach Club. Written for pre-teen girls, it seeks to thoughtfully answer not only the question posed by the young girl in the title but also issues surrounding the true nature of beauty. In addition to the book launch, there were refreshments, a Yoga class from Suzanne, owner of Lil' Yogees which specialises in yoga for children, face painting by Carolyn Greer and beautiful paintings by local artist Alexis Jardin. Denise Bebenek, founder and chair of Meagan's Walk was also in attendance to discuss the Meagan's Walk school program. If you would like to purchase copies of Margot's book, you will find it at Book City, 1950 Queen St. East, Ellaminnow, 1915 Queen St. East and Kids at Home, 2130 Queen St. East.

Event by Frank McKinney
Website code: pekjdy

Author Margot with Brooke and Madison, illustrators of the book

Aoife, Ruby and Finn

Denise Bebenek, founder and chair of 'Meagan's Walk' with Margot

Abby, Madison, Madeline, Claire, Aoife, Alexa, Emma and Natalie holding up copies of 'Mommy, Am I Pretty?'

Suzanne, owner of Lil' Yogees, yoga for children